

The Power of Purchasing Made Easy

Register and order through the Agilent Online Store

Unlock more of the benefits of your Agilent account when you register on the Agilent Online Store. We are continuously making changes and improvements to give you a better experience, quicker transactions, personalized pricing, and optimized search capabilities.

More benefits to purchasing through the Agilent Online Store

- View your personalized pricing if you have established a purchase agreement with Agilent
- Easily check order status and reorder from “My Orders”
- Create quotations straight from your cart
- Share orders and quotations with your colleagues
- Keep a list of your most-used supplies in “My Favorites” for even speedier ordering

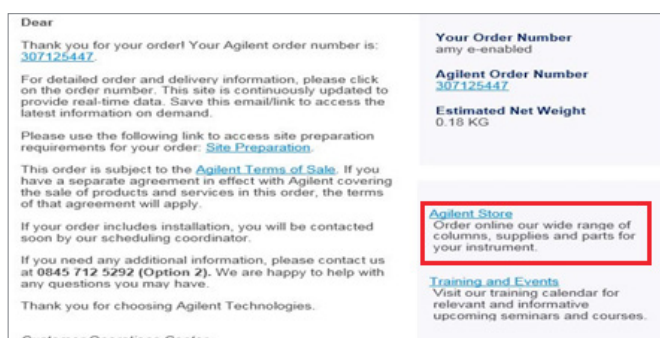

There are three ways to register:

1. Through an Agilent order confirmation email.
2. Through the Online Store.
3. Through a link to a prefilled cart.

Register through an Agilent order confirmation email

You receive an order confirmation email after every purchase. This can now be used to make it even easier to register for the Agilent Online Store.

- By clicking on the link to the Agilent Store, you will be registered so you can easily order the columns, supplies, and parts that you need online.
- Once you've registered, you'll receive an email prompting you to create a new password.

Register through the Agilent Online Store

Start your favorite browser and go to the Agilent website at www.agilent.com

- Click Login in the top corner.
- Click Register to set up an account.
- Next, fill in your profile information, including profile and login details, shipping and billing addresses.
 - Please use your corporate email address.
 - Personal email addresses, such as g-mail, yahoo, and hotmail will not be accepted.
- Account activation will take one to two business days. You can expedite the process by submitting one or more of the following documents with your registration request.
 - Your official business homepage URL with business name and address listed.
 - Company letterhead with business name and address listed.
 - Business registration certificate with business address.
 - Tax exempt certificate or VAT documents.
- Once you've completed the form, click Submit to receive your registration confirmation. You are now ready to make an order on the Agilent Online Store.

Register through a link to a prefilled cart

Your Agilent Sales Specialist or Field Service Engineer may provide links to a prefilled cart on the Agilent Online Store based on your needs.

Your account will be enabled to see your pricing and previous orders the first time you click the link. Once registered, you'll be sent an email prompting you to change your password.

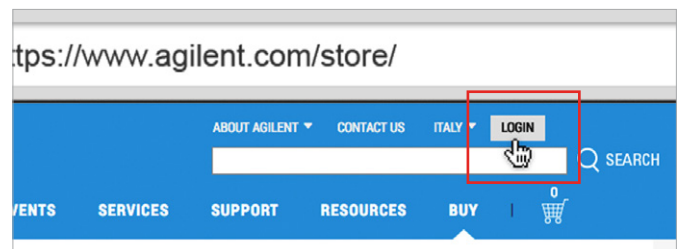

Once you click the link and select the pre-filled cart, you may continue to check out. Be sure to review the billing and ship-to addresses.
